

SUMMER READING FOR RISING FOURTH GRADERS

Each fourth grader will read three books this summer. The student will fill out a form for each book and will turn in the three completed forms on the first day of school. The student will write neatly in cursive using correct spelling, capitalization, and punctuation on the forms. If more space is needed, the student can use the back of the form or attach a sheet of notebook paper.

1. Required book

Sarah, Plain and Tall by Patricia MacLachlan

2. Choose one book from this list.

Hello, My Name is Scrambled Eggs by Jamie Gilson

A Bear Called Paddington by Michael Bond

Help! I'm a Prisoner in the Library by Eth Clifford

The Adventures of Vin Fiz by Clive Cussler

The Cricket in Times Square by George Selden

3. Book of Choice OR Choose another book from list in #2

The student will select a chapter book on a fourth grade reading level or above. OR The student will choose another book from the list above in #2.

Have a great summer!

Mrs. Niager

NAME _____

TITLE _____

AUTHOR _____

Setting (time and place): _____

Main Characters: _____

Summary of Plot (Write sentences to tell what happened in the story):
