DAY SCHOOL

CHALLENGING ACADEMICS | CORE VALUES | LEADERSHIP

Dear Parents and Friends of Rambam,

I hope everyone had a meaningful and successful Yom Kippur. I had the opportunity to learn with a class today, and I was reminded how wonderful it is to share yourself with your students. Share yourself by giving it your all; heart and soul and hoping that even in just a few minutes, you'll say something or do something that makes a difference - sinks in, makes an impression.

To all my colleagues and staff, thank you for all you do. Thank you for giving of yourselves for our precious students!

Just a Reminder:

It's that time of year again! The Second Harvest Food Bank has placed a donation canister next to the RDS office. We ask that families think of those less fortunate and send in non-perishable food items to help us fill our can.

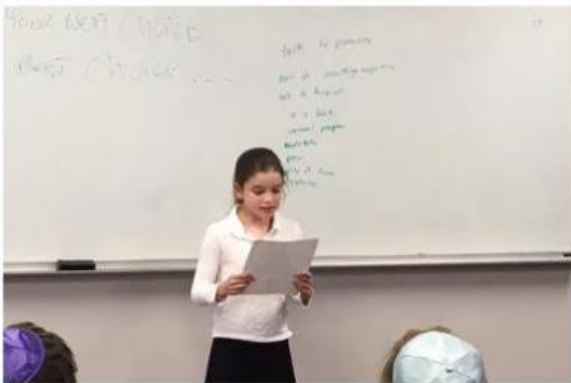

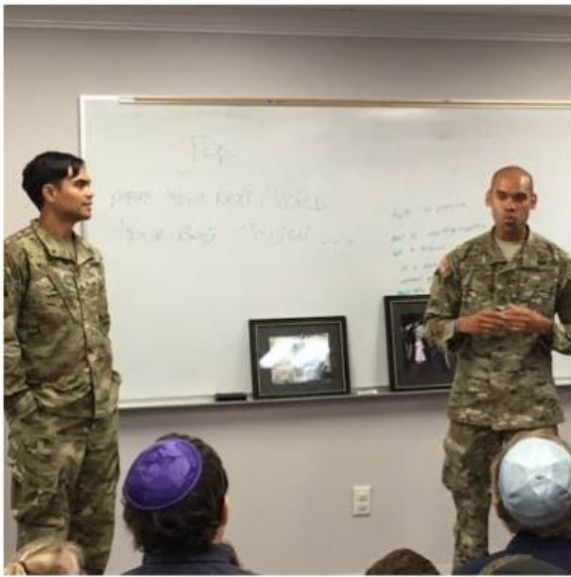

9-11 Program and student council break out.

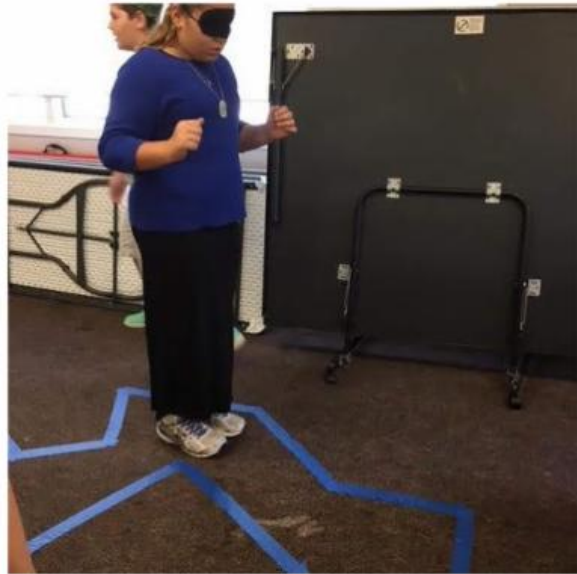

Rambam honored Patriots' Day with elementary students reading meaningful poetry about life before 9/11 and life after 9/11.

Shannon Celiz introduced Rangers who were from Captain Celiz's platoon. They came to speak to the children about 9/11, and answer any questions they had about the army, and even their own experiences. They spoke to the children about Captain Celiz, and what it means to be a member of the Armed Forces and to serve your country because the freedom and safety of others matters to you

It was a very emotional, moving assembly. The teachers and the Rangers gave away just how emotionally charging the experience of the assembly was through their own tears in their eyes.

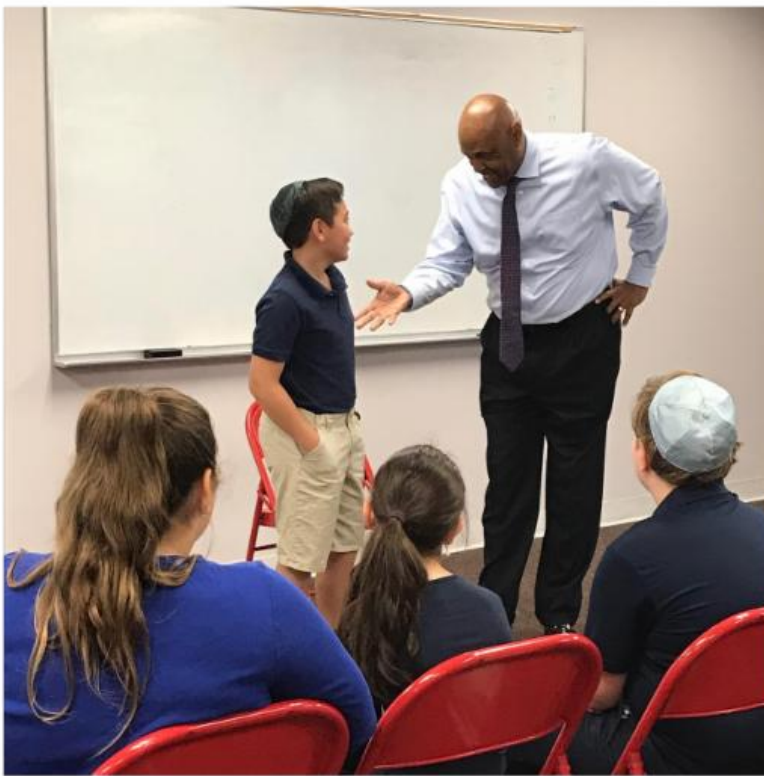

After this part of the assembly, Student Council gave out dog tags to 1st through 8th graders. Each tag has a character trait written on it and on the back of each tag it says, "Pay it Forward". Student Council's theme for this year is the army - being a hero, doing what's right and being willing to sacrifice to do the right thing. Student council then had an activity with middle school where they had to work together in "platoons" to get the job done!

THANK YOU TO MR. RON JAMES FOR HIS FABULOUS AND ENGAGING PRESENTATION ON THE IMPORTANCE OF MAKING GOOD CHOICES! (google www.RonLJames.com). Mr. James has an amazing life story, and while this is the second time he has spoken to our middle school students, they were completely enthralled listening to him and participating in his one on one exercises to prove his point.

5th Grade Science

Fifth grade is getting acclimated with the scientific method! To test their knowledge of the steps to the scientific method, they had their first lab where they looked to test which color has the highest frequency in a bag of skittles!

5th Grade

Lightbulb moments are the best for a teacher. When all of a sudden a student grasps the concept being taught and a “lightbulb” goes off in their heads, a teacher’s heart does a dance. While learning about fractions in fifth grade, each student was able to connect to different pieces of the process of solving fractions. Jenna’s lightbulb went off when she understood how to create equivalent fractions and realized they were the same. Ahrela was able to make a connection to fractions and how important they are in our everyday lives, including cooking and baking. Looking forward to more lightbulb moments!

Rabbi Gold's Chumash Class

Rabbi Gold’s Chumash class has completed the book of Bamidbar. This was completed since the beginning of the year. They celebrated the completion with a sym. In the Chumash they learned about the Jewish people traveling in the desert. They also learned about the first Pidyon Haben. At the sym everybody shared a snack which had to do with traveling or had to do with giving five coins to a kohain. Everybody had good time. Mazel Tov!!!

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE YAHADUS

As part of our Rosh Hashana curriculum, Seventh and Eighth graders were challenged to a POMEGRANATE SEED COMPETITION in which they divided up a pomegranate and counted all the arils (seeds). The 8th graders counted over 540 seeds and the 7th graders counted over 630! May Hashem increase our mitzvos like the seeds of a pomegranate in our upcoming year!

Seventh and Eighth graders celebrating with Jack Saul on the occasion of his putting on his Tefillin for the first time! Mazel Tov, Jack! We are so proud of you!

SEVENTH GRADE YAHADUS

Seventh Graders created these gorgeous apple trivets in honor of Rosh Hashana!

Seventh graders made these GORGEOUS flower, hanging decorations to adorn their Sukkahs!

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH CHUMASH

Seventh and Eighth Graders learned about the signs of kosher animals and fish in Parshas Reeh. They each had a chance to hold and check out the fins and scales of a real fish!

EIGHTH GRADE YAHADUS

Eighth graders created beautiful SIMANEI MILSA/SYMBOLIC FOOD CARDS for Rosh Hashana. Hopefully they came in handy as each card contains a special prayer corresponding to its symbolic food.

Eighth graders worked so hard to create these gorgeous, antique-looking Lulav and Esrog art frames to go in their Sukkahs!

BETTER TOGETHER PROGRAM

Rambam's very special BETTER TOGETHER PROGRAM is off to a great start! Chana Raizel, Ayelet, Jack, Benny, Shaya, and Elie did a wonderful job sharing Divrei Torah (words of Torah) about Rosh Hashana and helping the residents of Buckingham South make Rosh Hashana New Year's cards!

RDS cheerleaders during PE!!

SUKKOS PREP

Seventh And Eighth graders doing the beautiful mitzvah of BUILDING A SUKKAH at Buckingham South for the residents!

MORE MITZVOS!!

Seventh and Eighth graders had the privilege of helping Rabbi Slatius put together the Lulavim that community members will be using for Sukkos! They learned a great deal in the process!

SO MANY MITZVOS IN ONE WEEK!

In addition to helping Rabbi Slatius put together the lulavim, and building the Buckingham Sukkah, the seventh and eighth graders also helped Rabbi Gordon build his sukkah! They also helped Mr. Weinberg put some of the machzorim away from the High Holidays.

What a wonderful way to start the new year!

Thank you to Rabbi Slatius, Mrs. Slatius, Rabbi Gordon, and Mr. Weinberg for the mitzvah opportunities!

"Caught in the Act"

(Hopefully you'll be seeing a lot of "Caught in the Acts" in the Exclusives as teachers witness students doing great things!)

Max Krapf was "Caught in the Act!"

Max made sure to include a student in a card game. The student was last to finish an assignment, and was not part of the game when it started. When the student finished his assignment, Max noticed and made sure to deal him in!

KINDNESS IS COOL!!

"Caught in the Act" was Sammy Skidmore-Hess and Elie Raskin.

They both wanted to put their Chumash back in their lockers. After respectfully asking to do so, they both got up to leave the classroom. Sammy very kindly opened the door for Elie to go first. And, Elie very sincerely told him "Thank you!"

Such simple acts, but, so impactful! It is "acts" such as these that create the atmosphere in our school!

"Caught in the Act" Racheli Nitekman cleaned the floor. I asked her what she was doing and she said, "Someone spilled water, and I did not want anyone to trip and fall, so I am cleaning it up."
